Sugar Rationing Effective May 7; All Must Register

No Hoarder if You Have Sugar on Hand, Rationing Board Says

No sugar can be purchased after May 7 without a war ration book, but families having large amounts of sugar on hand at that date will not be penalized for owning amounts exceeding the permissible quotas when they register for sugar rationing books on May 4, 5, 6 or 7. These registration dates are for consumers.

More than 15,000 school sites have been made available for registration, Henry Pope, Jr., rationing administrator, Illinois State Council of Defense, announced. Thousands of teachers, who have volunteered their services, will be there to register everybody.

Mr. Pope emphasized the extent to which those who fail to register may be inconvenienced.

Will Register at Schools

"Registration in schools will end May 7," he said. "No matter how much sugar you now have, it will be eventually used up. Sooner or later, it will be necessary to register for no sugar can be purchased after May 7 without a war ration book. Tardy registrants then will have to prove what amount of sugar they had on May 7, and that they used it at the

DEALERS MUST REGISTER

Retailers and wholesalers, and industrial and institutional users of sugar will register in the High Schools of the county on April 28 and 29, according to announcements made by Almer E. Johnson, director of Lake County Rationing District 49.

Those registering should go to the nearest high school in their county to receive a registration blank. This can be had any time after Tuesday, April 21.

The registration blanks are to be filled out and returned to be certified during the registration days. This certification must be done in the presence of the registrar.

No purchase certificate for sugar will be given until the applicant's registration is completed.

The hours of registration will be from four (4) P. M. to nine (9) P. M. in the evening.

permitted rate of consumption. Having sugar on hand does not mean the person is a hoarder," Mr. Pope said. "Many persons for years have bought sugar in quantities ranging up to a barrel."

Regulations covering issuance of war ration books also were explained.

Two Pounds Per Person

You must declare the amount of sugar you have. If that amount does not exceed two pounds per person, you will receive a book containing the full 28 stamps, each authorizing the purchase of one pound. If your supply is greater than two pounds per person, one stamp will be detached from books for each pound over that figure. When amounts on hand exceed six pounds per person, no book can be issued until the supply is used at the proper rate.

If you register, however, you will get your book promptly when your sugar supply is exhausted. It is only those who fail to enroll their names during registration period, who will be subject to delay in replenishing their stocks, Mr. Pope said.

Drastic Penalties

The case with which the average family or person may register was stressed by Mr. Pope. One person may register for an entire family unit. There is a school site in every neighborhood. Each site is fully staffed by volunteer workers. Each registration will require only a few minutes.

Samples of War Ration Book One show that penalties for false statements and misuse of books will be heavy. Punishments range from a $10,000 fine to 10 years in prison, or both. Lost books must be returned at once to the nearest board.

"Death For Axis Spies," Legion Asks

Axis spies, saboteurs, and other enemy agents operating in the United States should be given the same treatment that would be accorded by the enemy powers to agents of the allies caught within their own borders, American Legion officers in Illinois state in representations made to Washington. The veterans of 1917 and 1918 express dissatisfaction with the light prison terms being given to enemy operatives already convicted in the United States, comparing them with the capital punishment and heavy prison terms being dealt out by Germany, Italy and Japan.

DEFENSE COUNCIL MEETING TO BE HELD IN ANTIOCH APRIL 29

The Lake County Council of Defense will no longer hold county meetings at the court house in Waukegan, according to announcement made today by County Co-ordinator Paul J. King, but each township is being requested to hold a meeting one night a month for all workers which the county co-ordinator will attend.

"Because of the seriousness of the fire situation the Lake County Council of Defense has decided to dispense with the semi-monthly meetings at the Lake county court house for the time being," King said in his message to township chairmen.

The Antioch Township Council will hold its first meeting on Wednesday night, April 29, at 8 o'clock, group leader Roman B. Vos announced today, and all defense workers are requested to attend if possible.

The Lake county co-ordinator will be present and will explain problems relating to local defense. The meeting will be held at the Antioch Grade School.

Grade School Pupils Rehearsing for Annual Festival Friday Night

Large Attendance Is Expected; 200 Pupils to Take Part

Final rehearsals are being held today at the grade school in preparation for the big annual spring Music Festival to be held in the Antioch High school auditorium tomorrow night in which over 200 pupils of the local elementary school will participate.

The drama, music and dance numbers will be presented by pupils of all grades from the kindergarten to the grammar school students of the 7th and 8th grades.

The program will be presented in seven parts, starting with folk dances by the kindergarten. The school band will be heard in several selections with June Spangard as soloist; and the seventh and eighth grades will present patriotic numbers with Gertrude Hawkins, Ralph Trieger and Olga Himes as soloists.

A large attendance is expected.

Red Cross Juniors To Meet Here Thursday

County-wide Meeting to Be Held at Antioch Grade School

A county-wide council of the Junior Red Cross society, including all Lake county schools, is being held this afternoon in the Antioch grade school starting at two o'clock.

In charge of the meeting is Mrs. O. P. Eimerman, county chairman of the Junior Red Cross, who will tell the story of the organization and work of the American Red Cross.

As is the custom in these times the meeting starts with the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Group singing will follow, and there will be instrumental numbers directed by Hans Von Holwede. There will be reports from the several schools on their activities, and officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

BELL TELEPHONE OFFICIALS CONFER HERE ON TOLL RATES

Following protests regarding telephone toll rates now being charged by the Bell Telephone company for service between Antioch and Lake Villa while both areas are on the Antioch exchange, General Suburban Superintendent Miller of Evanston, and Dist. Manager A. R. Andrews of Libertyville have agreed to confer here Saturday afternoon with Daniel S. Boyer regarding the lifting of the 10 cent fee now charged for service between the two towns.

The matter of the toll charge, which is considered unjust by many local subscribers, was first brought to the attention of the community in a meeting of the Antioch Lions club several weeks ago, and last Thursday a committee of citizens from the area entered a petition with the Illinois Commerce Commission to have the local toll charge abolished.

Legion, Schools, in Charge

Commander Roman Vos of the local American Legion post will be assisted by the Antioch Grade school teachers and other volunteers in handling the local district registration.

Chairman Douglas Getchell of the local selective service board told the News yesterday that Antioch volunteers in the previous registrations had done a perfect job and commended all who had helped.

Getchell, in a statement to this newspaper, also clarified the apparent misunderstanding regarding volunteer enlistments for military service. Refuting the statement that enlistments were no longer accepted and that all men subject to draft would have to await call, Getchell said, "It is the constitutional right of any man who can qualify to enlist for military service at any time."

With the April meeting the civic club recesses until September.

Charles Cermak, Jr., Enlists In Navy

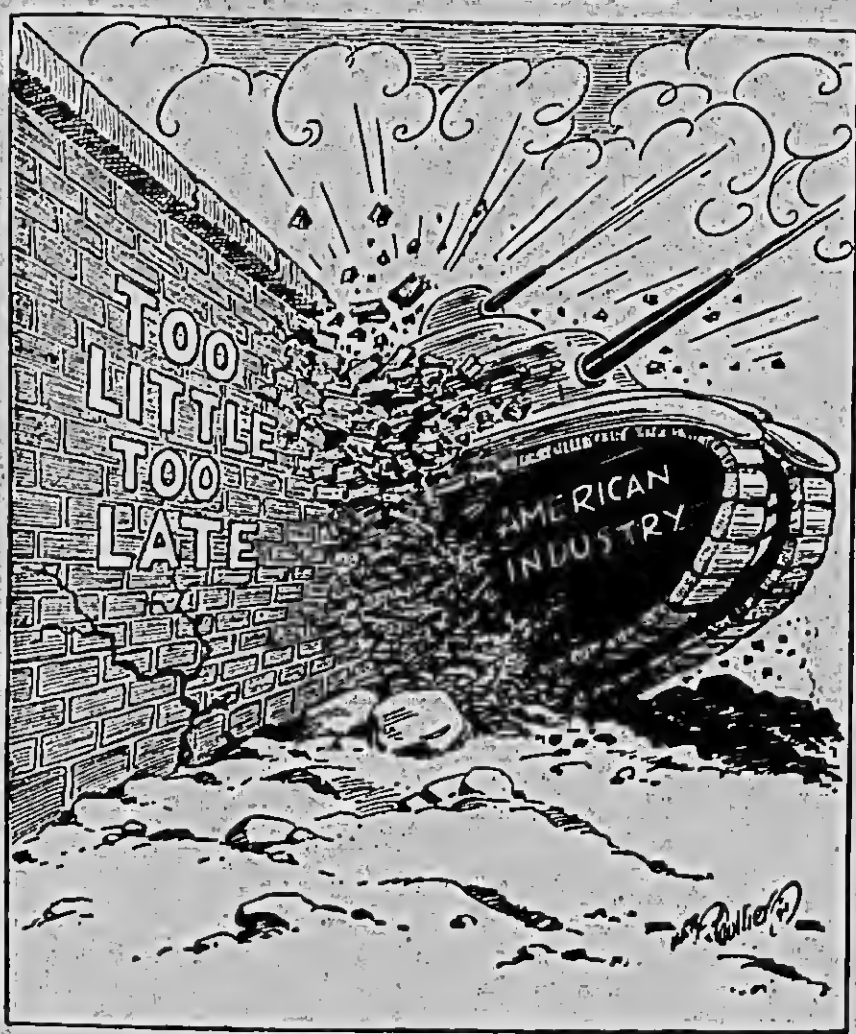

Charles Cermak, Jr., vice chairman of the Lake County Democratic committee, who was nominated on April 14 as his party's candidate for clerk of the probate court, today was called to Great Lakes Naval Training station where he had enlisted for duty as yeoman, third class.

Cermak's enlistment will prevent him making a campaign for the county office, and also preclude the possibility of serving in the event of his election in November. He will seek council with the county committee regarding the naming of a candidate to make the race in his stead, he told the News yesterday.

CRASHING THROUGH

Slot Machine Issue Jolts Lake County Bd. of Supervisors

Motion to License "Bandits" Declared "Out of Order"

Maybe Supervisor W. W. Steele of Highland Park was only kidding when he proposed a rural tavern license fee of $800 for all places operating slot machines, but he and other supervisors got a world of information during the few minutes following his motion made in board meeting Thursday.

The confusion following Supervisor Steele's motion was described in the Waukegan News-Sun as "an uproar." Assistant Supervisor Otto J. Boehm of Libertyville came to the rescue, declaring that Steele's motion was "well taken, but I believe it is out of order."

Supervisor Steele had made the motion in the form of an amendment to the motion of Assistant Supervisor Cliff Evans of Waukegan, a member of the liquor control commission, that the fee for the year starting May 1 remain at $200. Steele's increased fee proposal had been seconded by Supervisor Arthur Baker of West Deerfield. After much comment in which it was hinted that the board members did not wish to go on record as approving the operation of gambling devices, Supervisor Steele withdrew his motion.

"I brought this up to inform all the supervisors that slot machines are being operated in most of the county taverns," Steele said.

The county board then unanimously approved the $200 tavern license fee.

Frank Davis Elected Chairman

The new county chairman is Supervisor Frank L. Davis of Benton township who was chosen unanimously at Thursday's organization meeting. Chairman Davis will name his committees at a special meeting of the board to be held tomorrow. Chairman Davis succeeds David Van Patten of Newport.

Sterbenz Son, 23, Buried Here Monday

Is Survived by His Parents, Seven Brothers and Two Sisters

A fall from a ladder over four years ago resulted in the death last Thursday of William Patrick Sterbenz, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sterbenz of Leona lake. Never in good health since the accident which eventually caused his death, the young man became suddenly worse last week and was taken to the state hospital in Elgin where his death occurred shortly afterward. The deceased was born in Necedah, Wis., and came to this locality with his parents several years ago.

He is survived by his parents; also seven brothers—Joe, Herman, Paul, George, Fred, Rudolph and Albert; and two sisters, Josephine and Dorothy. His brother, Rudolph, now in military service at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., flew here to attend the funeral service held Monday at 10 a. m. from St. Peter's church, where the Rev. Father Slenczki officiated. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Industry Stresses Need for Coach Service in County

Lake Shore Plants Seek to Avert Crisis in Transportation

Lake Shore industries including the large manufacturing plants of Waukegan and North Chicago today voiced approval of the plan launched recently by citizens of the lakes area to secure motor coach service to the lake shore cities and to Chicago.

Reported to be stressing the need for increased transportation facilities for the entire district is the Cyclone Fence Division of the American Steel and Wire Co., North Chicago; Oaks Products Co., North Chicago; North Chicago Foundry; Fansteel Corporation; Abbott Laboratories; Johns-Manville Products Corp.; Johnson Motors; and Public Service. These appeals as evidence of necessity will be turned over to American Coach company officials.

Officials of these plants employing thousands of workers have appealed to the American Coach company which has been granted a franchise to operate service between points in Lake county to Chicago, and who own the seasonal franchise for operating between the North Shore cities and points in western Lake county, to inaugurate the service at the earliest possible date. Many workers in north shore industrial plants who require daily transportation soon will face difficulty in getting to and from their places of employment, due to tire rationing.

Heading the delegation appearing before the Illinois Commerce commission last Thursday in Chicago was Daniel S. Boyer, chairman for the Antioch Lions Club, Mayor George B. Bartlett of Antioch, H. A. Smith, cashier of the First National Bank, W. A. Rosing and E. F. Vos, while Lake Villa was represented by W. M. Marks and B. J. Hooper. Also having audience with the commission previous to the meeting was Senator Ray Paddock and Representative Harold D. Kelsey of the 8th district. Delegates said members of the commission stated they would issue the certificate of convenience and necessity following the overwhelming evidence of the need for service in this area.

The local delegation was augmented by the addition of representatives from other districts including Glenview air field, Golf in Cook county, and a half dozen other communities who came to join in the plea for the establishment of the bus service.

President A. H. Gerner of the American Coach company conferred here Tuesday night with committeemen regarding routings and schedules, and sought further assistance to enable him to secure approval of the rationing board for additional equipment so that the coach schedules may begin operating May 15.

Reeves Drug Obtains Dried Blood Plasma

Transfusion Material Is Important Contribution to Medicine

A revolutionary system of storing human blood plasma for transfusion has been adopted by Reeves Drug Store, it was announced here today. The pharmacy department has obtained lyophilized plasma from a pharmaceutical and biological company which collects and processes blood from tested healthy donors.

Does Not Deteriorate

Mr. Borovicka, pharmacist, explained the unique features of lyophilized human blood plasma. The freshly obtained material is checked for purity and prepared by means of a special process involving quick freezing and vacuum drying. The plasma is supplied as a dry powder in a sealed vacuum-vial and can be kept for at least five years without refrigeration. Fresh blood plasma must be refrigerated, which is expensive and makes transportation difficult. In some cities, power failure has caused complete loss of refrigerated blood and plasma banks which, of course, is obviated by the use of dried plasma.

Can Be Used Anywhere

Lyophilized plasma may be kept ready for use in operating rooms, the accident room, delivery or supply rooms, and it may be carried in ambulances for administration wherever the emergency demands. The dry plasma is quickly converted to the liquid state by the addition of sterile distilled water, supplied with each package. Valuable time is saved by the fact that the plasma may be given to patients of any blood type. To patients who have been receiving any of the sulfanilamide drugs this plasma is extremely valuable, because accurate blood-typing is not possible in these cases.

The lyophilized plasma has been carefully checked and cross-checked for sterility. Mr. Borovicka also pointed out the obvious advantages of the dried plasma for bringing transfusions quickly to the aid of victims of civilian disasters, and he added that large supplies of this material have already been supplied by the American Red Cross to the Army and Navy. Lyophilized plasma is carried in hospitals on U. S. battleships and in Army camps and Army hospitals throughout the country.

Letter Worth Reading

We seldom print letters written to the editors of other periodicals but the following missive to the Memphis Commercial Appeal, used by that excellent publication as the basis for an editorial is so appealing that we are making an exception. It speaks for itself:

"To the Commercial Appeal:
"My only son was born while I was in France during the first World War. Today he is a member of the United States Marine Corps. He sailed from California the 1st of January, and we have heard nothing from him since. We know he is somewhere in the Pacific. We are anxious about him. Thousands of other parents are like us.

"The President says we do not have enough ships to send supplies to our troops, and that we must build ships in a hurry. Even as he spoke, several hundred shipbuilders refused to work on Washington's birthday, because they were not paid double time.

"How can fathers and mothers of boys who are in the danger zone and who are being called upon to sacrifice their lives feel any 'surge' of unity when the President and the Congress permit a bunch of shipbuilders and munitions workers to quit when they get good and ready?

"Do our boys at the front get 'over-time' and 'double time' in the fox holes of the Philippines? Do our sons who are giving their lives to protect the jobs of these and others like them quit on holidays? Like hell they do.

"One of my friends, who is a good mechanic, with a family to support, went to get a job in a munitions plant. Every day we hear on the radio and read in the newspapers that such men are needed to turn our munitions for our soldiers, sailors and marines. But this man was refused a job until he could get a union card. He could not get a union card because he did not have enough money to buy one.

"Is it the idea of our government that it is more important to preserve labor unions than it is to preserve the American Union? Why can't a freeborn American citizen get a job in a plant where the government needs workers without having to pay tribute to a high-powered labor leader?

"If our sons are to be drafted to give their lives for their country, why should not labor and capital be drafted to supply them with munitions of war? Why should Congress, which has the power to make laws, be so tender of the regard for laborers and management who work and prosper in safety while having an utter disregard for the lives of the boys at the front?

"We don't like it, and we don't mind saying so right out loud. Maybe it is time were were electing some senators and congressmen who will crack down and compel capital and labor to get into this war. And, come to think of it, this is election year, and we might as well get busy while we have the time and opportunity.

"John C. Sheffield."

Helena, Ark.

Blood Money

Despite all the talk to the effect that the labor problem has been generally settled for the duration, the fact remains that no man can get a job in most industries unless he belongs to a union, pays dues to a union, and accepts dictation from a union.

The closed shop amounts to a labor monopoly of the worst kind—a monopoly exercised by labor leaders who are responsible to no one, not even the government.

If the 100 per cent closed shop goal is reached, labor dictators will be more powerful than government itself. They will have an absolute stranglehold over all instruments of production and distribution.

Witness use of such power in slowing up war production to enforce demands. Refusal of thousands to work in defense industries on Washington's birthday except at overtime pay, is an example of unpatriotic or disloyal action hard to equal. Our soldiers are dying on many fronts because such actions have held up vital supplies. Double time for overtime should be called "blood money" today.

Bitter Pills Coming

One of the main arguments against the sales tax is that it is "politically dangerous." Even so, Congress may yet discover that necessity will dictate the adoption of some sort of sales tax, political expediency notwithstanding. "Politics as usual" may be finally forced by war necessity to take a back seat.

We are reaching the point where it will be impossible to substantially increase revenue from taxes on businesses and individual incomes, without endangering the very existence of the economic and social system we are fighting to defend in every corner of the world. When that point is reached, a sales tax, which will be paid by all, is the only solution, bitter as the pill may be for the vote-hungry politicians to swallow.

Care of the Garden

In taking care of a garden, weed control is one of the most important jobs. Besides being unsightly, weeds rob crops of soil and air, and deprive them of moisture and nourishment. They also harbor and encourage insect pests and plant diseases.

Weeding should begin as soon as the seedlings come up in the row to act as a guide to the gardeners. Small weeds can now be pulled with the fingers or with a small knife. Once begun, it is not to be stopped. As the plants grow larger, the hoe and the wheel hoe or hand cultivator are the best implements to use in the control of weeds. Cultivating regularly in the row and between the rows is a big help in keeping weeds in check all through the growing season.

In discing, cultivating, weeding, and hoeing the garden soil allows air to enter so that beneficial soil bacteria will have favorable conditions in which to work. It also helps to form a mulch to keep the under layers of soil from drying out. Cultivation, either with a hoe or with a hand cultivator, should be shallow, especially as the plants become larger. Deep stirring is likely to cause injury because the feeding roots of many flowers and vegetables spread out directly beneath the surface of the soil.

During the early part of the season, cultivation should take place as often as once a week, and sometimes even twice a week. The soil should be cultivated only when fairly dry, however, cultivating when wet will cause the surface to bake.

In hot, dry weather, artificial watering is sometimes advisable to keep the garden crops growing normally. In a small home garden, particularly, it is practical to let the hose trail along the ground close to the rows to give the roots of the plants a good wetting. The soil should be soaked for about a foot down. It is not necessary to water the entire garden in this way all in one day. Some of the rows could be watered one day or evening, and other rows the next.

Don't cook the good out of your food

Keep these rules near your Gas Range to save vitamins and minerals

Most of us these days are more conscious than ever of the need to conserve the good, healthful elements in the food we buy.

If you use your gas range to full advantage, you can be sure of getting the vitamins and minerals in the foods you prepare. Clip out these simple rules . . . they are well worth saving.

Rules for Cooking Vegetables with Vitamins and Minerals Left In

- 1 Whenever possible, cook vegetables without peeling, since many minerals are found directly under the skin. If they have to be peeled, peel them close.
- 2 Do not peel, dice or shred too long before cooking, and never soak; exposure to air and soaking in water reduces vitamin content.
- 3 Use utensil with tight-fitting lid to keep steam inside; it shortens cooking time, prevents evaporation of water.
- 4 Use only enough water to thoroughly cover the bottom of the pan.
- 5 Never add soda; it destroys vitamins.
- 6 Turn gas on full until steam appears; put in vegetables; then turn flame to "simmer" position.

7 Do not lift cover during cooking. Stirring is unnecessary.

8 Cook vegetables only until "tender crisp." Over-cooking destroys vitamins, as well as harming flavor, texture and color.

9 Serve vegetables immediately.

10 The liquid drained from vegetables contains valuable food elements. Use it for sauces, vegetable cocktails, gravies and soups.

The Modern Way to Roast Meat with Less Shrinkage and More Vitamins

- 1 Place meat fat side up in uncovered low-sided pan in oven.
- 2 Do not add water or baste.
- 3 Cook at low temperature to save juices and vitamin content. Protein is not overcooked, shrinkage is reduced. Cook beef, lamb and veal at 325°, fresh pork and chicken at 350°.

Laval Given French Police Powers As Germany Fears Invasion Threat; U. S. Bombers, Subs Smash at Japs; Increased Undersea Program Likely

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

VICHY:

Pressure from Berlin

Regardless of underlying causes, or of how much justification there might have been, the overturn of government in Vichy which had brought Laval back to power as "civil supervisor" had been definitely accepted by Britain and the United States as a decision to "go with the Axis."

It had come at a moment when there were some indications that Vichy was wavering in its collaboration with Germany, and that Petain and his associates were looking with longing and friendly eyes toward the United States as a possible source of food supplies.

Some favorable steps had been made in this direction, then, all of a sudden, Laval seized the police power, and before the world knew it, Laval was back in the cabinet and many believed it marked the end of the Petain regime.

London was very positive about the whole thing, saying frankly that the re-entry of Laval into the government, the man who looks, acts and talks like Hitler, "reduces France to the level of a nickel Balkan state." The spokesman continued: "It clearly indicates the complete subservience of the Vichy policy to Berlin."

Two vital reasons were seen for the Laval development and both of them were envisioned as Germany "cracking down" on the Petain regime. The first was the German fear that an American-British invasion of the continent through France is imminent.

The second was that Germany feared the growing friendliness of Vichy and Washington through the ministrations of Laval.

Hardly anybody thought the French fleet would immediately go into the war on Germany's side; neither could most observers see French soldiers fighting against the Russians, nor French fliers manning planes to bomb Britain.

But they could see a strong effort to be made at once by Germany

U. S. SUBS:

Wolfpack Tactics

The success of American submarines in the present Pacific war with credit for a substantial percentage of the amount of Japanese warships sent to the bottom, had caused Chairman Vinson of the house naval affairs committee to present a program calling for $800,000,000 more in undersea craft.

A program adopted in 1940 called for 65 such ships. This would call for 100 more, or more than double the amount previously authorized.

The navy, last October, had 106 submarines in service, of which only a few were of the 1,500-ton "cruiser type," which are now under construction and planned by the Vinson program.

The naval plan would be for the United States to adopt the same

"wolfpack" tactics used by the Japs and Germans against American shipping. Though it was pointed out that we are building ships faster than they are being sunk, Vinson felt that an increased sub program would kick the Japs out of the war faster, as their shipbuilding facilities were limited.

MacARTHUR: In Command

Although it had seemed clear enough through dispatches from Australia that the return of MacArthur from the Philippines had been to place him in command of all armies of the United Nations in the Far East, some doubt had followed this in the eyes of the public, largely because of stories about General Blamey, and the small amount of material coming direct from MacArthur.

Finally the direct question was put to the American generalissimo, and his headquarters gave credence to the rumors when it frankly said it didn't know—that the general's status was not clear.

This called for a statement by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Curtin, the former stating that it was his understanding that MacArthur was in supreme command.

The following day this had been concurred in fully by Prime Minister Curtin, who went into enough detail so that little doubt could remain as to MacArthur's command powers.

The only point remaining not clear was whether MacArthur's powers extended to New Zealand. A Netherlands spokesman had confirmed his command over such Dutch forces as had escaped from the East Indies, and the fact that General Stillwell was in command of Chinese in Burma seemed sufficient confirmation from that quarter.

PRICES:

And Labor

The chances were that President Roosevelt might "beat to the punch" congressional efforts to legislate on the labor situation by pegging all prices, including rents and wages and interest on capital, thus following the Canadian and Australian systems already in effect.

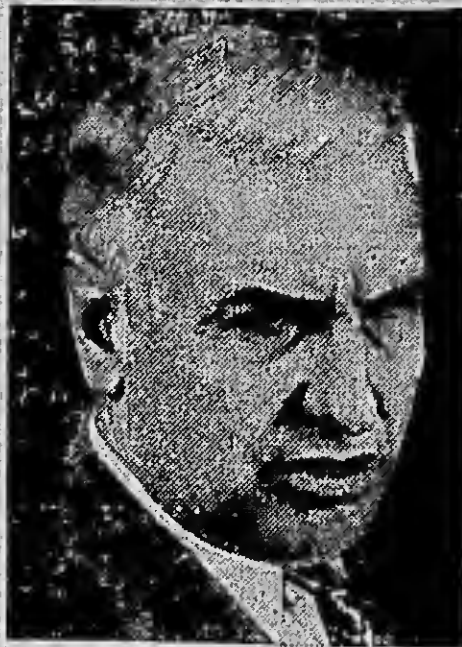

Australia, guarding against the "black market" troubles England had had, because of a dire shortage of commodities, took the same step Canada had, and brought all prices and services under control of the government.

The price commissioner was given authority to peg all prices and services at levels he might select.

The announcement already had gone out from Washington that such a move was "under consideration by the government," and most observers felt that under precedent as well as law, the Executive Branch had the wartime power to do this.

Technically, this, if carried out by the President, would tend to spike the guns of congressmen proposing laws setting the work week and the return to capital on war contracts, because it would affect all workers, pegging their wages at certain levels, and also, presumably, setting their hours of work.

JAP INTERNEES: Paid Too Much?

SENATOR GILLETTE
Offers a four-point program.

Latest "scandal" to land on the front pages had been a report, given to the public by Senator Gillette of Iowa, that Japanese internees some of them were being paid $50 a month by the government as against $21 for selectees.

The senator said he was impressed by the sources of his information, and that he might ask for the congress to investigate.

The senator added that in any case, he was offering a four-point program, as follows:

1. Put all Japs, native and aliens, under United Nations authority and remove them from the Pacific coast.
2. Rescind all their civil rights for the duration.
3. Draft all the males between 20 and 44 for farm work under army control and for basic army pay.
4. Support this entire program with funds obtained from frozen Japanese money now in this country.

The senator said that he had information there was the sum of $130,000,000 now available, and that several hundred millions more could be liquidated by selling frozen Japanese assets in this country.

RUSSIANS:

Place names coming out in Russian dispatches spoke volumes more than any claims of killed or wounded, because they definitely had showed that the German "spring offensive," although well-under way with hundreds of thousands of men, was getting nowhere.

For instance, the Reds had claimed to have pierced German lines in the vicinity of Bryansk; constant references were made to actions north and south of Lake Ilmen; Kalinin was a common name in the dispatches and the reports from towns like Mariupol in the south, and Vitebsk of Nazi atrocities could only have been obtained as the result of Russian advances.

There were German admissions showing Russian advances, a breakthrough admitted near Lake Ilmen, and Berlin broadcasts had said that the Reds were pounding the central front with an army of 90,000, including hundreds of tanks.

COUGHLIN:

Social Justice, the weekly newspaper which was founded at Royal Oak, Mich., by the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, radio priest, had been barred from the mails.

Father Coughlin issued a statement denying present ownership of the paper, or any connection with its editorial content since last fall. Washington advices, however, had indicated that the principal ownership rested with the "radio priest's" father and mother.

The accusation against the publication had been two things—that it was conducted along the line of the Axis propaganda war against this country, and, second that it had been "making a substantial contribution to a systematic and unscrupulous attack" upon the nation's war effort.

AIR EPIC:

A heroic epic of the air was the story of the rescue at sea of 17 survivors of a torpedoed vessel, including one woman, by a navy patrol plane piloted by Ensign Francis E. Pinter of Bethlehem, Pa.

Pinter's plane, a twin-motored bomber flying from San Juan to Guantanamo on submarine patrol got a radio message to investigate a raft at a certain point, and to report chances of effecting a rescue.

He had taken off with 500 gallons of gas and had burned 300 gallons, and though the sea was rough he decided to chance it "as rescue seemed necessary at once."

Down he came, got the people into his plane, all of them so exhausted that they needed help for the transfer. One was tied to the deck, the woman got a bunk, the rest sat or lay where they could, three of them in the bomb compartment.

MISCELLANY:

Detroit: Henry Ford announced that his research engineers have discovered a method of making a satisfactory auto tire with one-sixteenth the rubber used in present tires. It will wear well, he said.

London: A large number of Americans were in London taking a special course on how to defend merchant ships against attacks by U-boats.

to man unoccupied France with troops which could be depended on to fight an invasion attempt, and thus relieve Germany of the necessity, and already through field glasses they could see the Germans preparing gun emplacements on the channel coast.

MERCY SHIP: For Bataan

The first revelation of identity of the men lost in the battle of Bataan (the Jap claim had been 6,700 Americans of 40,000 total prisoners) came when 600 relatives of 1,400 New Mexico soldiers pleaded for a "mercy ship" to be sent to Bataan with food and clothing.

They comprised fathers, mothers, sisters and brothers of the men of the 200th coast artillery corps (anti-aircraft), all from the state of New Mexico.

It was stated in their petition that they believed their unit to have had more men in it than that from any other single state.

While some of the relatives did not sign, and hope was expressed that perhaps much of the corps had escaped from Bataan to Corregidor, there was enough evidence that the regiment had been trapped to induce Senator Chavez to go to work at Washington in their behalf.

The first thing that had been done, however, was for the senator to ask the President for definite word as to the fate of New Mexico's 200th.

U. S. BOMBERS:

Sensational reports from General MacArthur's headquarters had provided the information that American planes had made a devastating attack on Japanese bases in the Philippines.

Maps showed, however, that unless the planes had been earlier based or at some point not heretofore revealed as in American hands, the shortest roundtrip flight from Australian territory would have been 2,800 miles to the southern tip of Mindanao, or about 4,000 miles.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Contributed by the Bahá'í Group

"Of all things the best, before us lies the path of justice, turn not away therefrom if thou desirest Me and neglect it not that I may confide in thee. By it, and thou shalt see with thine own eyes and not with the eyes of others, and shalt know by thine own understanding and not by the understanding of thy neighbor. Ponder this in the heart, how it becometh thee to be. Verily justice is My will to thee and the sign of My loving-kindness. Set it then before thine eyes."
—From "Hidden Words" of Bahá'í.

"Hidden Words" is the book of Meditations of the Bahá'í Teachings. Follow every true civilization to its hidden sources and there is found some book of meditation—the spring of the soul whence are sown the seeds of vital hope whose fruits are increased power over nature, larger love for man.

If your car stalls during a rain, due to wet ignition, do not keep running the starter. That only deadens the battery and gains nothing. Wait until the rain stops or have the car towed in and the ignition dried.

THOS. BROMPTON, 67, DIES OF HEART ATTACK

Was Former Resident of Antioch and of Lake Villa

Thomas Brompton, 67, former resident of Antioch and Lake Villa, died early Sunday at his farm home near Cedar Crest, the victim of a heart attack.

Coming from Collingham, England, at the age of 13, he spent the remainder of his life in this locality. From 1905 to 1910 he was in business in Antioch where he and his brother-in-law, R. A. Shultis, conducted a meat market in a building on the ground now occupied by the King drug store building. Later he operated a market in Lake Villa.

Following his business ventures he became farm manager for two of the Lehmann estates near Lake Villa, and four years ago he bought the Tuman farm near Cedar Crest.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Brompton. Surviving are two daughters, Miss Mabel Brompton, and Mrs. Ethel Bausch, and a son, Howard Brompton, all of Lake Villa; three sisters, Mrs. W. Avery, Chicago; Mrs. F. W. Barber, Colorado Springs, Colo.; and Miss Alice Brompton, Chicago; and one granddaughter, Joy Brompton. His wife, Jessie, passed away several years ago.

Funeral services were held at two o'clock Tuesday from the Strang Funeral home, Antioch, with the Rev. W. A. MacArthur of Lake Villa officiating. Burial was in Angola cemetery.

Find Wood Here 20,000 Years Old

Pieces of wood said to be more than 20,000 years old have been dug from beneath the Sequoia creek bed west of Antioch by Chas. Ackerman's dredging machine which is being used to make the channel from Antioch to Lake Marie.

Authority for the statement regarding the age of the wood comes from the Field Museum, Chicago, where geologists connected with that institution made the appraisal. Clues indicating the age of the wood was revealed by teeth marks made by a species of beaver, much larger than the more recent beavers now known, and said not to have existed in this locality for thousands of years. The wood specimens appear to be a variety of willow or poplar.

RADIO BROADCAST ON SAVINGS PLAN

Federal, labor and industrial leaders will hear a special radio broadcast on war savings over an NBC network tonight from 9 to 9:30 p. m. It was announced today by James F. Stiles, Jr., Lake county chairman of the war savings program.

O'Leary, chairman of the executive committee of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, and Lieut. Camille Edward O'Hare, air hero who shot down five Japanese planes in one day.

Topics to be discussed will be the national war bonds savings system and the proposed 10 per cent payroll savings plan.

Simonsen Will Attend Fire Prevention School at Barrington May 27-28

Latest methods of combating fires of all kinds and especially those due to sabotage, incendiary, and bombings will be studied by Edgar Simonsen, an engineer of the Antioch Fire department, when he attends the defense fire prevention school at Barrington on May 27 and 28. Fire Chief Louis Van Patten, who recently appointed Simonsen drillmaster of the local department, instructed him to attend the school.

Simonsen, upon his return, will be assigned to instruct the members of the Antioch department both in the fighting of fire and its prevention. During war time, Chief Van Patten explains, new types of incendiary bombs are appearing in all the combat zones. To successfully combat the effects of these, firemen must be continually on the alert. That is the purpose of the fire prevention school at Barrington, where competent instructors will demonstrate the newer types of bombs and explain to firemen how to deal with them.

Legion Buys $100,000 in Defense Bonds

Illinois veterans of 1917 and 1918 are taking every means to back their comrades of the present war. Typical of this cooperation is the purchase by the American Legion in Illinois of more than $100,000 worth of defense bonds, the allocation by the American Legion of a special fund of $10,000 to cover the cost of training air raid wardens instructors at a school to be inaugurated in June at Jacksonville, Ill., and the enlistment by the Legion of more than 70 per cent of the personnel now serving on the Illinois selective service boards.

Menu Inspiration—Strawberries in Season (See Recipes Below)

Strawberry Doings

Once again this red, bright berry is coming into its own, as strawberries dot the markets in this spring unto summer season. For the lift that it gives to foods in which you use it, for the harmony with which it combines with other foods, and for its own natural goodness, the strawberry rates a column by itself.

Honey Strawberry Jelly.
2 1/2 cups strawberry juice
1 cup honey
2 1/2 cups sugar
1 package dry pectin

Crush strawberries and drain through jelly bag without cooking. Measure juice, add pectin and place over hottest fire. Bring to a full rolling boil. Add honey and sugar and again bring to a full boil. Continue boiling for 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour into sterilized jelly glasses and seal.

You will be allowed extra sugar for canning in spite of the sugar rationing, so do not be concerned over the amount of sugar called for in this recipe.

Strawberry Marmalade.
(Makes 12 6-ounce glasses)
1 quart strawberries
2 oranges
2 lemons
1 1/2 cup water
7 cups sugar
1/2 bottle fruit pectin

Remove peel from oranges and lemons and cut off white membrane. Put peels through a food chopper. Add water and bring to boiling. Cover and simmer 10 minutes. Add orange and lemon pulp and juice. Simmer 20 minutes. Add crushed strawberries. You should have 4 cups of fruit. To this add the sugar. Bring to a boil, and boil 5 minutes. Remove from heat, stir in pectin. Let stand 5 minutes. Skim. Seal in hot sterilized glasses.

If you want to ride the crest of popularity with family or guests, then arm yourself with a few strawberries, a bit of sugar, an egg beater, and old faithful, the refrigerator, and in no time at all you will have a perfect dessert for lunch or dinner or afternoon refreshment.

Lynn Says:

Honey Hints: With increased use of honey in prospect you will want to learn to use it most economically. Honey is different chemically from sugar so follow all amounts given in recipes carefully for best results. They have been tested to give you the necessary correctness in cooking.

To measure honey, use a greased or a moist cup so it will pour out readily to the last drop. A greasing brush is an economical way to grease the cup. In measuring spoonfuls of honey, dip the spoon first into cooking oil, melted butter or liquid fat before dipping in honey.

Keep liquid honey in a warm place, about 75 degrees or over. Avoid damp places of storage. Comb honey is better kept at room temperature rather than in the refrigerator.

To liquefy honey that has granulated, place in a bowl of warm water, just warm enough for a hand, and leave in until all crystals have dissolved.

Strawberry Mousse.

(Serves 6)
1 1/2 cups crushed strawberries
1 cup thick cream, whipped
2 egg whites, well beaten
Pinch of salt
1/2 cup sugar

Combine sugar and crushed fruit and stir until sugar is dissolved. Fold sweetened fruit into the whipped cream. Fold salt into beaten egg whites and mix with fruit and cream. Pour into a refrigerator tray or mold for freezing until firm.

No round-up of strawberry recipes is complete without a sauce to crown that dish of ice-cream or that cold vanilla pudding which you made this morning. This one will really turn your simple dessert into a party-mannered one, so cherish it as you would an heirloom.

Strawberry Sauce.
1 quart strawberries
Powdered sugar to taste
Trated rind of one orange
Few drops of lime juice
1 tablespoon currant jelly
1 cup whipping cream

Stem and wash strawberries. Slice them and sweeten to taste with powdered sugar. Sprinkle grated rind and lime juice over berries, and stir in the currant jelly beaten with a fork. Beat the cream and fold it in carefully to the strawberry mixture. Serve over ice-cream or cold pudding.

Then there's shortcake! Nothing is so good as sliced or crushed strawberries spooned between hot biscuits, slit and buttered.

*Strawberry Shortcake, (Serves 8)

2 cups flour
1 tablespoon sugar
3 teaspoons baking powder
3/4 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons fat

Mix and sift dry ingredients. Cut fat into mixture using two knives. Add milk gradually to make a soft dough. Toss on floured board, pat lightly to 1/2-inch thickness. Cut with a biscuit cutter and bake on unbuttered pan in a hot (425-degree) oven for 12 minutes until a light, golden brown. Split, butter and fill with crushed or sliced, sweetened fruit. Replace top and spoon more fruit on top. Be sure that you let the sugar stand on the fruit for a half an hour or so before using.

*Baked Spareribs, (Serves 6)

Place 3 to 4 pounds of spareribs in a roasting pan. Pour over the following sauce and bake at 300 degrees for 2 to 3 hours, basting occasionally with the sauce.

Sauce: Combine 1/2 cup soy sauce, 1 cup honey, 1 level teaspoon prepared mustard, and 1 finely chopped onion.

*Stewed Tomatoes, (Serves 6)

1 can tomatoes (No. 2 can)
1 tablespoon butter
Salt and pepper
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1 slice bread, cubed

Heat tomatoes, add salt, pepper, butter and sugar. Fold in cubed bread and as soon as all is heated thoroughly, serve immediately in small sauce dishes. Cracker crumbs may be used in place of bread.

The Observer

"Call for Philip Morris"
The tiny tot hesitatingly approached the cigar counter in an Antioch store the other day and said to the clerk he wanted cigarettes.

"Is it candy cigarettes you want?" asked the clerk. "Real cigarettes," replied the T. T. "Are they for you?" he was asked. "Naw, for ma." When asked what brand he wanted the youngster was stuck. Was it Old Gold? No reply. Could it be Camels? Chesterfield? Kools? Lucky Strike? None of these elicited any reply, and the clerk and a customer who was trying to be helpful had just about given up when the tot blurted out—"The kind Johnny brings."

The amount of tea which a grocer may now purchase has been cut in half and consumer rationing may follow. Pretty soon instead of singing "Tea for Two," they will have to make it "Tea for One."

But if you run short of tea hearken back in memory to the good old days when grandma made it for you out of sassafras bark. It wasn't bad, either.

Hitler, according to his latest speech, has decided not to lick Russia until summer comes. Maybe by that time he will have decided not to lick anybody.

It is now proposed that automobiles be equipped with wooden tires. Of course they won't make much speed. They will just go lumbering along.

A lot of fellows who never won a fight with their wives can give you the inside dope on how to lick the Japs and Nazis this summer.

Everybody makes slighting remarks about town gossip; but if it were not for them how would the rest of the people learn all the things that they are dying to know?

A tender-hearted Congress a few years ago refused to fortify Guam because it might hurt the feelings of Japan. There is no satisfaction in trying to win the friendship of a rattlesnake.

A best seller was written a few years ago entitled "Life Begins at Forty." But that doesn't apply to the automobile tire.

Even if the razor blade supply is cut to one per week we will manage to scrape along somehow.

Most folks' idea of a good newspaper is one which publishes all the good news about him and his family and the bad things about the people he doesn't like.

"Goosey, Goosey, Gander"
Lady customer in local garage—"I'd like to have my car serviced and some new tires?"

Mechanic—"Well, good morning; I saw in the paper that some of your Canadian geese were lost. Did you find them or hear any report about them?"

Lady—"No, we didn't. The sad part of it is the geese are expensive, and they are bought by the pair, and when they mate once they never mate again, even if one dies."

Mechanic—"Well, well; That's strange; I had never heard of that—true to their mate, even in death."

Lady (after deep thought)—Yes, but who wants to be a goose.

TEACHERS PLAN DINNER MEETING

Section I of the Lake Shore Division of the Illinois Education association has planned a very ambitious dinner program for April 30, at the Waukegan Township High school at 6:30 p. m.

The subject, "What War Means to the Schools," is of utmost importance to America at this time, officials of the association have pointed out, and laymen, board members and school people are meeting in open forums all over the land in an all out effort to shape an over-all program that will prove most beneficial to youth.

One of the prominent educators who is to be on the panel program is Mrs. Irving Enevold, state P. T. A. adviser. The principal speaker will be Irving P. Pearson, executive secretary of the I. E. A. Also on the program and member of the program committee is Prin. Ralph E. Clabaugh of the Antioch elementary school. Prin. Clabaugh is also president of the Lake Shore Division of the I. E. A.

The program will be in five parts: Budget, curriculum, adult education, defense activities for youth, and post war problems.

Tickets for the dinner meeting may be secured locally from Miss Ayleen Wilson, grade school teacher.

Bulb Is a Vacuum
When an incandescent electric light bulb is dropped it generally explodes with a large report. That is because the bulb was a vacuum, all the air having been removed, because only in a vacuum will the slender filament give out a bright light without fusing.

Germes of War Upset Natural Processes, Speaker Tells P.T.A.

Rev. Glenn Garber Urges Logical Living in Time of War

"War is a reversal of the normal processes of nature. It may be necessary, but going against nature is always very dangerous," declared the Rev. Glenn M. Garber, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Libertyville in his talk on "Personal Living in War Time" before members of the High School Parent Teachers association at their meeting Monday night at the high school.

Reverend Garber compared living in war time to living in conditions infested with many germs, all of them circumstances dangerous to us. He listed seven germs or serious conditions that affect our personal lives during war time:

1. Loss of things to which we have been used.
2. Dislocation of lives.
3. Loss of our usual privileges.
4. Restriction of our actions.
5. Money problems.
6. Actual suffering and death.
7. Results of education for war rather than for peace.

"Only if people are aware of what they are facing can they avoid panic," stated the speaker. "We can profit by the experience of others. . . . We can prepare ourselves for the things that may happen to us."

If we are not immune to these dangerous conditions, four things may happen to us according to Garber:

1. People may become neurotic.
2. We may lose our physical health.
3. People will develop irritable natures.
4. Cynicism may be developed (This is the most serious of all diseases, a moral disease.)

Rev. Garber last told three definite ways by which we may avoid these dangers of living in a war time:

1. Take care of your physical self.
2. Get a philosophy which will rid your life of fear.
3. Live logically. (Live on a basis of reason, rather than of emotion.)

"It is going to take a great deal of balance and poise to be a good teacher or parent these days," the speaker reminded his audience.

At the opening of the meeting Hans Von Holwege led community singing. Miss Myrtle Hardike sang "O Lovely Heart," and Edward Ruschewski sang, "Vienna, City of My Dreams."

In the business meeting the following were elected as officers for the coming year: president, Mrs. Irving Elms; vice president, William Upton; secretary, Miss Helen Olson; treasurer, Mrs. William Jones; and historian, Mrs. Paul Chase.

TYPISTS HAVE WET PICNIC

(By Marty Winch)

Nine bright young career-girls-in-the-making ceased their labors in the commercial classes long enough on Thursday, April 16, to have a picnic-hike after school. The traditional rain-storm pursued them in the traditional manner, so after a wild run from the grove, where they had managed to cook one weenie, the very wet collection of embryo stenographers settled at the school cafeteria, where under the supervision of Miss Ross, commercial teacher and chief chef pro tem, the rest of the weenies were cooked and general jollities were engaged in. In spite of the downpour and the impromptu road-work, everyone had a good time and proclaimed the hikeless picnic-hike a success indeed.

Paratroops Boast First Jumping Chaplain

CHAPLAIN RAYMOND S. HALL

Parachute troops at the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia, boast of a literal "sky pilot." He is Chaplain Raymond S. Hall, former rector of St. John's Protestant Episcopal church, Lowell, Mass., and the Army's first jumping chaplain.

Chaplain Hall is a quiet, husky young man inclined to regard his present assignment as the happy working of fate. When he was first assigned to Benning, there was no regulation requiring chaplains to jump. Chaplain Hall soon fixed that. After a week of talking to the men he applied for permission to take the gruelling five-week training course. He found it rough going. It had been more than ten years since Chaplain Hall was captain of Brown University swimming team and a member of the All-American swimmers, and life in the rectory had not prepared him for the enthusiastic body-bending a parachutist must perform in training.

Today, as a qualified parachutist, he looks forward to each jump with zest. He also speaks with modest satisfaction of the men's reaction to his jumping. "It increased attendance at church," he says.

BUY UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS AND STAMPS

FOR YOUR PROTECTION

At this season of the year itinerant roof applicators are touring the country looking for prospects for roof and side wall shingle jobs.

They Come - They Sell - They Apply - They Disappear

For many years we have been telling the public that these products can be bought right here at home for less money and they will be applied by competent local labor, whose workmanship is unquestioned.

Many of the itinerant roofers remain in business for a short time only and in the event that you get a poor job, which happens not infrequently, you will have to bear the expense of your repairs, because of their financial inability or their unwillingness to return and make the job good.

Some Things to Watch in Dealing With These People!

1. That they do not overestimate the size of the job.
2. That they do not overcharge you per square for the job.
3. That they use insulation under the shingles.
4. That they protect the window stops from water.
5. That they repair sills where rotted.
6. That they talk around window and door frames.
7. That they use the best of materials.

In Dealing With Us

1. We will figure the size of your house right along with you.
2. We will show you how we arrive at our price.
3. We will use heavy weather pad insulation under the shingles.
4. We will use your neighbor, the local carpenter, to do the work.
5. We will be here years after the other fellow is gone.
6. We will finance your job if you have a steady income.
7. We will use the best of materials.

We are interested in the welfare of our customers and always try to give them the best values for their money. We do not have time to call on each and every customer individually and take this opportunity to express the hope that you will take us into consideration before you close a deal for any kind of a building job.

We submit estimates cheerfully and without obligation on your part

We Can Finance the Job If You Need It

Won't you see us before you buy?
